OPEN LETTER FROM MR MEAH

Chief Executive of Global Islamic Brotherhood,
Chief Executive Fox 121 Security Ltd

The following letter was made by Mr Meah concerning a lifetime of false allegations, false arrest and continued attempts that were made to fit up Mr Meah in the main by Essex Police. To save you counting there are 7 ( yes seven - lucky for some?) not guilty entries.

Dear Visitor

My troubles with police have been going on since about the age of about seven (53 years ago) when I was first accused of breaking into the United Dairies milk depot in Valence Avenue. Ever since then it has been an uphill struggle proving I am not a thief, stupid or an idiot.

The real problem started with DS S [Brentwood Police] who had an affair at the end of the 70s with my ex wife while I was working seven days a week putting food on the table and a roof over her head and two young children.

My wife was robbed around that time of £10,800 cash, although it struck me as funny that the robbers only took the cash and left my wife with the cheques. The police accused me of robbing my wife or being involved in the robbery in some way.

In the mid 80s I was arrested by Brentwood Police for driving without insurance, held in custody and found not guilty in court even the clerk of the court told me to lodge a complaint against Brentwood Police Station. The court case was heard at Epping Magistrates Court. Around the same time I was arrested yet again by Brentwood Police Station officers for demanding money with menaces when a workman who was working at my home stole £5,000. This matter went to court and he was ordered to repay the money.

Approximately the same time I was arrested yet again for threatening to shoot two police officers who came into my home via the back door uninvited. I went to court and was found not guilty. I was arrested for conspiracy to commit fraud and held on remand for around eight weeks at Wormwood Scrubs I eventually got bail nearly losing my business over this wrongful imprisonment. I spent nine weeks on trial at Snaresbrook Crown Court and was found not guilty.

In Feb 2000, I was wrongfully arrested yet again for kidnapping and found not guilty again at Snaresbrook Crown Court. Shortly after that I was arrested by Romford Police Station Officers for possession of drugs. This was proved in court that I was not guilty.

Shortly after that in Spring 2000 I was again arrested by Brentwood PO for threatening a Park Ranger in a Brentwood Park. This matter went to court and I was found not guilty. Again in spring 2000 I was arrested yet again for threats to kill an allegation by a well known local businessman and church warden whose father happened to be a JP (Magistrate). I spent five months on remand in Belmarsh Prison. When this came to trial it was proved that I was not guilty.

During 2000 I was beaten up by six officers of Brentwood Police Station who assaulted me and viciously attacked me whilst in a local hospital in Brentwood. This attack was witnessed by my two daughters. I was arrested and held for two hours in Brentwood Police Station before being released without charge.

As memory serves I am around £4 Million out of pocket having paid for defending myself in the last three of these cases since I was unable to get legal aid. I have renounced my faith in Christianity and am a student of Islam. I thank Allah, peace be upon him for giving my sanity back. Allah Akbar [God is Great].
