

and am sorry to laden you with this problem but I feel I was unfairly treated I enclose the correspondence regarding this incident and request an appointment with you at County Hall to discuss this matter + what you intend to do, as doing nothing is not an option. Only now do I feel well enough to pursue this matter having suffered depression, nervous breakdown + panic attacks. Trusting you will give this your immediate attention.

Yours faithfully

R Meak