SUPPLEMENTARY NOTES

- Mr Ronny Meah is of Bangladesh/English Descent & a student of Islam (Muslim) was born in Highgate Hospital, North London in 1943.
- Mr Ronny Meah lives near Mr M's house and has no choice but to drive past the property to carry out his day to day living. Likewise Mr M has to regularly drive past Mr Meah's property.
- Mr Ronny Meah is now fearful for his life, the life of his remaining pets.
- There have been two earlier racially motivated attacks previously made by Mr M Senior & Mr M Junior. The first was when a knife was pulled on Mr Ronny Meah and threats made to stab him & burn his house down. The second was when Mr Ronny Meah & his partner P (formerly employed with Essex Police as a Civilian) were walking in a country lane and were deliberately driven at.
- Mr Ronny Meah is now incurring costs to maintain his personal safety and integrity of his property since PC W & Inspector S failed to follow up the offer of witness protection and subsequently denied even offering it.
- There have been numerous occasions when both Mr M Senior and/or Mr M Junior have driven past Mr Ronny Meah's property slowly and made offensive/aggressive gestures and hurled verbal abuse. Some of these have been witnessed by third parties who are prepared to make statements and if needs be go to court.
- It is common knowledge locally that Mr M Senior regularly drives under the influence of alcohol and according to sources close to Essex Police already been prosecuted in the past for drinking and driving and has been banned from driving.
